MISSION

Southeast Nebraska CASA recruits, trains and supports community volunteers who advocate for abused and neglected children in the Seward, Saline, Thayer, Jefferson and Gage County court system.

ABOUT US

Volunteers are trained and appointed by a judge to an abused or neglected child's court case. Once assigned, the volunteers help children build resilience to overcome mental health, abuse, neglect, or any other trauma.

Volunteers also advocate services for the benefit of the child and help find children a safe place to call home.

INTERNSHIP

We are excited to partner with any surrounding colleges and universities. We want to give students opportunities to strive and succeed after graduation. Contact us to create your own internship that is unique to you and your career goals.
